

Mark Sealey
Business Development
Executive

Rural Broadband supporting the Rural Economy

Rural Broadband supporting the Rural Economy

- Why is broadband important?
 - Brings local business to global markets
 - Educational opportunities
 - Connects public to healthcare
 - Consumers benefit from e commerce saving
 - Increases area job growth
 - Enables start and growth for businesses
 - Keeps people in touch with friends and family
 - Drive traffic to businesses
 - Reduce commuting
 - Businesses run more efficiently

<https://www.airband.co.uk/>

