54. The accounting records shall be kept at the registered office of the Company or, subject to the provisions of the Act, at such other place or places as the Board thinks fit, and shall always be open to the inspection at the offices of the Company.
55. The Board shall from time to time determine whether and to what extent and at what times and places and under what conditions or regulations the accounts and books of the Company or any of them shall be open to the inspection of members not being members of the Board, and no member (not being a member of the Board) shall have any right of inspecting any account or book or document of the Company except as conferred by statute or authorised by the Board or by the Company in General Meeting.
56. Subject to the provisions of any elective resolution of the Company for the time being in force, the Board shall from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Act, cause to be prepared and to be laid before the Company in General Meeting such profit and loss accounts, balance sheets, group accounts (if any) and reports as are referred to in those provisions.
57. Subject to the provisions of any elective resolution of the Company for the time being in force, a copy of every balance sheet (including every document required by law to be annexed thereto) which is to be laid before the Company in General Meeting, together with a copy of the auditor's report, and Board's report, shall not less than twenty-one days before the date of the meeting be sent to every member of the Company and every person entitled to receive notice of General Meetings of the Company.

AUDIT

58. Auditors shall be appointed by the Board and their duties regulated in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

NOTICES

59. A notice may be given by the Company to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him or his registered address, or (if he has no registered address within the United Kingdom) to the address, if any, within the United Kingdom supplied by him to the Company for the giving of notice to him. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, prepaying first class and posting a letter containing the notice, and to have been effected in the case of a notice of a meeting at the expiration of 24 hours after the letter containing the same is posted, and in any other case at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

60. Notice of every General Meeting shall be given in any manner hereinbefore authorised to:-

- (a) every member except those members who (having no registered address within the United Kingdom) have not supplied to the Company an address within the United Kingdom for the giving of notices to them;
- (b) every person being a trustee in bankruptcy of a member where the member but for his bankruptcy would be entitled to receive notice of the meeting;
- (c) the auditors for the time being of the Company;
- (d) each member of the Board; and
- (e) those persons/bodies referred to in Articles 42 (b) and (c).

No other person shall be entitled to receive notices of General Meetings.

DISSOLUTION

61. Clause 8 of the Memorandum of Association relating to the winding up and dissolution of the Company shall have effect as if the provisions thereof were repeated in these Articles.

RULES OR BYE-LAWS

- 62.
- (a) The Board may from time to time make such Rules or Bye-Laws as it may deem necessary or expedient or convenient for the proper conduct and management of the Company; and for the purposes of prescribing classes of and conditions of membership, and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, it may by such Rules or Bye-Laws regulate:-
- (i) the admission and classification of members of the Company (or the Board), and the rights and privileges of such members, and the conditions of membership and the terms of which members may resign or have their membership terminated and the entrance fees, subscriptions and other fees or payments to be made by members;
 - (ii) the conduct of members of the Company in relation to one another, and to the Company's employees or office holders;
 - (iii) the setting aside of the whole or any part or parts of the Company's premises at any particular time or times or for any particular purpose or purposes;
 - (iv) the procedure at General Meetings and meetings of the Board and committees of the Board in so far as such procedure is not regulated by these presents;
 - (v) and generally, all such matters as are commonly the subject matter of company rules.
- (b) The Company in General Meeting shall have power to alter or repeal the Rules or Bye-Laws and to make additions thereto and the Board shall adopt such means as it deems sufficient to bring to the notice of members of the Company all such Rules and Bye-Laws, which so long as they shall be in force, shall be binding on all members of the Company. Provided nevertheless, that no Rule or Bye-Law shall be inconsistent with, or shall affect or repeal anything contained in, the Memorandum or Articles of Association of the Company.

INDEMNITY

- (a) Every member of the Board or other officer or Auditor of the Company shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Company against all losses or liabilities which he may sustain or incur in or about the execution of the duties of his office or otherwise in relation thereto, including any liability incurred by him in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgement is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under Section 727 of the Act in which relief is granted to him by the Court, and no member of the Board or other officer shall be liable for any loss, damage or misfortune which may happen to or be incurred by the Company in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto, but this Article shall only have effect in so far as its provisions are not avoided by Section 310 of the Act.
- (b) The members of the Board shall have power to purchase and maintain for any member of the Board, Officer or Auditor of the Company insurance against any such liability as is referred to in Section 310(1) of the Act.

MEETINGS WITH SPARSE-Rural

- 64 The Company may hold joint General and/or Board member level meetings with the members (or Executive members in the case of Board level meetings) of SPARSE-Rural. Any such meetings will not constitute formal General or Board Meetings of the Company and cannot commit the Company or, as the case may be, Board to any particular decision unless the provisions as to quorum and voting numbers relevant solely to the Company's representation thereat are met as though they were General Meeting or Board Meetings of the Company itself
